Cindy Contino has joined Katz & Associates. Cindy's focus will include all aspects of tenant and landlord representation, commercial retail leasing, and sales transactions throughout Florida.

Cindy has over 15 years of real estate experience from luxury home sales to working on several billion dollar mixed-use projects in sales, marketing, leasing and event management. She began her real estate career in 2003 working with national home builder, Centex Homes, in Jupiter, FL. After several years of working with the builder, she moved onto development with Hospitality Development Group as a Sales Director. In 2008 Cindy moved to NY where she served as National Director of Chapters, where she successfully launched and introduced over 300 chapter locations into different markets across the US. In this role, she was also at the forefront of national conferences working with high profile women in business such as Ivanka Trump, Randi Zuckerberg and Sara Blakely.

In addition to her diverse real estate background, Cindy is a true entrepreneur, owning and operating several businesses. This is a key asset as she can relate and understand the needs of new and expanding business owners. Cindy has even co-hosted a real estate talk show in south Florida where she interviewed some of the most prominent business and real estate moguls such as Warren Buffet. She has and continues to participate in numerous real estate events, and is an active member of several leagues throughout Central Florida.

Cindy has worked with developments such as Intercontinental Hotel Group, Hospitality Development Group, WW Holdings Inc., and Boyd Development Corp. She is currently working with several tenants to roll out stores throughout Florida, including Rosallie French Café, DetailGround and Indigo Spa & Wellness. With her experience in office, retail and sales, she has a wide range of experience to handle any commercial real estate needs.
